D. 1863 Gentlemen of The Board of Trustees: After an absence of twenty-five years, with the exception of nine months and occasional visits, I find myself in the State of Illinois. Under her serene and brilliant heavens, my youth passed into manhood. Along her quiet streams, through her beautiful groves, and over her broad prairies, I have roved, when life was fresh as the flowers of spring that met my eye, and restless as the grass that waved around me in the gentle breeze. Some of my happiest recollections are of her. Some of my purest and sweetest associations are with her. Into life s texture she has woven many a golden thread, and imparted many a brilliant color. Here not only youth put on physical strength, but within the walls of one of her literary institutions she taught my mind to think, and sent me forth to gather honors in the walks of science, literature, and professional life. And...
