My Dear Major, --I wrote you the day after my arrival, since when I have received your friendly letter of the i6th instant. I cannot differ from you in your decision for I think it perfectly just and esteem myself much obliged to you for your condescension in asking my opinion. I stood the first for Command when I left Dacca, Young is next, but if he relieves T. Smith 1 hope you will not permit the tour to be altered and pass me. If Smith was ill and you judged it necessary to relieve him, It would be a different case--then I must of necessity loose my tour. But I think I ought not to loose it through the pleasure of other Gentlemen. In the fair line of service if casualties happen whilst I am absent from my Corps I must suffer. I...
