Handwork--Make a cradle of plasticine. This is our cradle basket. Who can tell the story? Miriam was helpful. Last week we learned about Samuel, who was helpful, too. Each little child can some love work find, Each little hand and each little mind, Gentle and helpful and kind all can be, Though they are little, like you and like me. Closing Song. Prayer. Dismissal. LESSON XV HELPFULNESS THROUGH GIVING Aim of Lesson--To show that helpfulness is attained through the act of giving. Greeting. Quiet Music. Hymn. Prayer. Songs--Teach Winter. Let the children talk freely for a few minutes about the winter, what the snow does for the little seeds in the ground, etc. A little verse says: A foot deep of rain Will kill hay and grain; But three feet of snow Will make them both grow! Conversation--Who remembers the story I told you last week? Have pictures in conspicuous places to help the children recall story. Review it, either by having one child tell the story or by asking questions. Each little child can some love work find, Each little hand and each little mind. Gentle and helpful and kind all can be, Though they are little, like you and like me. Call different children by name and let each one. tell you.how little children can be helpful. Emphasize the best suggestions; children can be helpful by coming quickly when they are called; by obeying; by dressing themselves; putting their toys...
