Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Messiah; As Predicted in the Pentateuch and Psalms: Being a New Translation and Critical Exposition of These Ancient Oracles This book has been written with the view of furnishing the student of the Bible, in a concise form, with the arguments for the truth of the Christian religion, drawn from the fulfilment of the Messianic prophecies. These prophecies, being the groundwork of our Christian faith - the rudiments of our theology, it is all the more necessary that biblical students should be initiated into a thorough scientific knowledge of them. Unless this be done, though the upper stories are built, the foundation is certainly neglected. One reason why so many misconceptions prevail upon this subject is to be found in the mystical method of interpretation, and although it be repudiated at present by every intelligent expositor, yet it is to be regretted that we are still - to some extent - oppressed with the haze which it has spread over the field of exegesis.
