Marketing Merge, Incorporated, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Meri Har-Gil introduces the exciting and lucrative landscape of the New Economy in this course book for the School of Online Business. It s time to leave boring, unfulfilling careers behind. There is no excuse for people to work jobs they hate when the New Economy makes a passion-filled career possible. Speaking from over 25 years of experience as a successful entrepreneur, Meri Har-Gil s journey started when she was just a 14-year-old girl living with her big family in rural Israel. A series of courageous choices changed not only the direction of her life but who she became as a person, and she shares the key points of her transformative journey and how they apply to all small business hopefuls struggling to find their value in a rapidly changing marketplace. With her passion for lifelong learning and fearless attitude toward change, Har-Gil shares how she grappled with and capitalized on the eye-opening possibilities of the New Economy. Co-author Mike Klingler explains how the Internet has given rise to a refreshing new style of business professional and how the life-changing opportunity is open to individuals of all stripes, even technophobes.
