Interview with Maj Steven Dowgielewicz

By Marty Deckard

Bibliogov, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Major Steven Dowgielewicz, Transportation Corps, deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom as the deputy division transportation officer of the 1st Armored Division. In Iraq, Dowgielewicz assumed command of Bravo Company, 123rd Main Support Battalion. Pushing the 1st Armored Division out of nine different kasernes through three different ports required mastering the details and vagaries of all modes of transport for the men and their machines. The division arrived in Kuwait in May 2003, largely moving the equipment by sea. The division moved into Kuwait to Baghdad with numerous challenges to maintenance and road march skills. The division rear set up at Dogwood, 40 miles southwest of Baghdad. It was from Dogwood that Dowgielewicz became the acting division transportation officer until selected to assume command of Bravo Company in the division s main support battalion in July 2003. He made the transition from managing the movement to supporting the division s subordinate units to accomplishing support missions across the division s area of operations. Dowgielewicz found the company split between the division main at the Baghdad International Airport...
