Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Relations of Christian Denominations to Colleges: An Address Before the Conference on Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, at Atlanta, Ga;, May 20, 1908 In beginning a paper which concerns the relations of religious organizations to institutions of higher learning, I may perhaps be allowed a word in regard to the work and scope of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. This new institution, but recently endowed by Mr. Andrew Carnegie with fifteen millions of dollars, is not a charitable institution, but an educational agency. It deals with colleges, universities, and technical schools in the United States, Canada, and Newfoundland, and is the only institution at the present moment which is directly concerned with the educational interests of the whole of English-speaking North America. The purpose of the Foundation is the service of higher education by strengthening and dignifying the calling of the teacher. It does this, directly, by the establishment of a retiring allowance system in such colleges and universities as may become eligible to its benefits. The professor in...

Reviews

This book is definitely not effortless to begin on looking at but quite entertaining to read. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. I am just easily can get a enjoyment of looking at a written ebook.
