Everything is done for us that Christian love can do. This is a community of good angels. But for that grave, I should think myself still in Paradise. My cup runs over with blessing! The little one is very well. Don t be troubled about us. Only come before Christmas. God will not forsake his own. Look we higher than the grave! Christ is alive. Death is conquered. The air swarms with angels. Their silver trumpets wake me in the morning, and their golden lutes lull me to sleep at night! Take heart, my dear C, and be strong! This was excellent preaching. No other could have done me so much good. With faith and courage I girded up my loins and went forward. Pleasant occupation and the sympathy of many friends combined with Divine grace and the hope of immortality to make the worst endurable and lighten the heavy burden of the heart. Like Bunyan s pilgrim, I had met Apollyon in the valley, and our swords struck fire in the shadow of death. Through Him who had loved me, consciously more than conqueror, I went on singing toward the Celestial City. Letters from Louisiana were now frequent, and all bright and sparkling as phosphorescent sea-foam. Leila Thalia, wrote the mother, is to me as a rosebud from Eden. Felicia s grave has opened into a gold mine. In the gloomy vale I have found a bed of rubies. Is it not good...
