Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Narendra Modi rode the wave to walk into 7, Race Course Road, and became the second RSS pracharak (bachelor preacher) Prime Minister of India. Before him, Atal Bihari Vajpayee had flung open the office for the saffron outfit. Vajpayee firmed up the BJP as a reliable alternative at national politics. Yet he could not knock out the Congress. The RSS and Congress are existential foes of each other. Vajpayee over the years had become a centrist due to the uniqueness of his times. In contrast, Modi wears the RSS on his sleeves. In the 2014 verdict, Modi gave near mortal blows to the Congress. The grand old party is left with self-doubts. The journey down the hill for the Congress is not yet over. The Congress leaders are aware that a decade of Modi rule would snap the life support of the party. Modi too is aware of the fact, and accordingly has co-opted regional parties, while keeping the Congress at arm s length. The script of quarrelsome Indian polity with the advent of Modi was written in the 2014 verdict. Modi government could push a few of the key legislations early in its life only after the President Pranab Mukherjee delivered straightforward message to the Opposition. The voice of sanity lost its audience quickly. And the BJP and Congress are back sparring, while holding the legislative progress of the country hostage their narrow considerations. It was simplistic to run down Modi magic in 2014 as advertisement blitzkrieg. The popular narrative in India had been hostage to the New Delhi clique. The larger political class of the BJP and Congress, besides the media formed this clique. They stayed...
